CRITICAL THINKING IN PSYCHOLOGY
PSYC4180 G
Fall/ Winter 2019

IMPORTANT NOTE:

This document contains two sections. Section I contains information compiled and disseminated by the Department of Psychology. All rules, regulations, and procedures in this section apply to and will be strictly enforced in each section of PSYC4180. Section II contains information specific to PSYC4180 sections taught by K. Phillips.

See Section II for information on required texts, grade components, and the seminar schedule.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate ability to think critically about applications of psychological findings reported in the media.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of variety of ways to express psychological findings in everyday life.
3. Critically identify myths or stereotypes in common discourse.
4. Recognize limits of conclusions based on inferential statistics.

Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

For a full description of York grading system see the

<https://calendars.students.yorku.ca/2019-2020/academic-and-financial-information/academic-information/grades-and-grading-schemes>

Late Work/Missed Tests or Exams

For any missed tests or late assignments, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office.

HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the test/assignment

Students with a documented reason for missing a course component, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (Attending Physician Statement which can be found at: <http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf>) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

 See note in Section II for specific policies in PSYC4180 sections taught by K. Phillips

Add/Drop Deadlines- Important Dates

For a list of all important dates please refer to: Fall/Winter 2019-20 - Important Dates

	Fall (F)	Year (Y)	Winter (W)
Last date to add a course without permission of instructor	Sept. 17	Sept. 17	Jan. 19
(also see Financial Deadlines)
Last date to add a course with permission of instructor	Oct. 1	Oct. 22	Feb. 3
(also see Financial Deadlines)
Last date to drop a course without receiving a grade	Nov. 8	Feb. 3	March 13

When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as "W". The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.*

Academic Integrity for Students

York university takes academic integrity very seriously, please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity by completing the SPARK Academic Integrity modules.

Electronic Devices During a Test/Examination:

Electronic mobile devices of any kind are not allowed during a test or examination. Students are required to turn off and secure any electronic mobile device in their bag which is to be placed under the chair while a test/exam is in progress. Any student observed with an electronic device during a test/exam may be reported to the Undergraduate Office for a potential breach of Academic Honesty.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The York University Accessibility Hub is your online stop for accessibility on campus. The Accessibility Hub provides tools, assistance and resources. Policy Statement.

Policy: York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations and adaptations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs. The nature and extent of accommodations shall be consistent with and supportive of the integrity of the curriculum and of the academic standards of programs or courses. Provided that students have given sufficient notice about their accommodation needs, instructors shall take reasonable steps to accommodate these needs in a manner consistent with the guidelines established hereunder.

For Further Information please refer to: York university academic accommodation for students with disabilities policy

Class Time and Location: Tuesdays, 2:30 - 5:30, R S205

Required Texts:

Kuhn, T. S. (1962). The structure of scientific revolutions. Chicago: University of Chicago Press.
ISBN:9780226458113.

Chambers, C. (2017). The 7 deadly sins of psychology: A manifesto for reforming the culture of scientific practice. New Jersey: Princeton University Press.
ISBN: 9780691158907

There are a number of additional readings associated with each topical unit. These may be found on Moodle.

Specific Learning Objectives:

- *Engage in reflective consciousness about dominant paradigms in psychology, with special emphasis on the Standard Social Science Model (SSSM), and consider the implications of paradigms on all aspects of the research process.
- * Articulate the attributes of critical thinking and apply them in the assessment of theories, methods, and extant data.
- * Demonstrate appreciation for the constant interplay between theory and data in science.
- *Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively, productively, and respectfully with student colleagues who may or may not share your opinions.
- * Further develop skills in written and oral presentation of ideas within an individually-selected area of scholarship.

Procedures: This is a seminar class where students will be required to keep up with weekly readings and be prepared to discuss them in small group configurations.

Moodle: Outlines will be posted weekly on Moodle. It is imperative that students check Moodle frequently for course announcements and updated content.

Evaluation: There are 4 graded components in this course:

Assignment 1.	(15%)	Opinion Piece and Peer Assessment Exercise
Assignment 2.	(15%)	Evaluation of a Media Report on an individually determined topic (format determined by students)
SPSS Assignment	(15%)	Students will be given a data set and asked to perform various operations using SPSS and to interpret findings
Group Presentation	(25%)	In this culminating exercise, students will formally debate evidence for and against claims associated with certain controversies in psychology. A list of potential controversies will be made available, but students are free to make further suggestions.
Participation*	(30%)	See note below.

* A significant portion of the final grade is assigned to participation. Participation, in the context of this course, refers not only to physical attendance and active contribution to seminar discussions, but also to completion of reflection exercises (most of which are not graded) that occur frequently throughout the course. These are designed to encourage and facilitate engagement in course materials. For full participation marks, students need to attend sessions, read assigned materials in advance of sessions and demonstrate thoughtful understanding of assigned materials, actively contribute to seminar discussions, and participate in all aspects of assigned exercises.

Description of Assignments: Detailed descriptions of all graded components along with grading rubrics will be posted on Moodle.

Missed/ Late Grade Components: Late assignments will be accepted up to one week after the deadline including weekend days. If your assignment is late, you will be deducted a late penalty of 2 raw score points per day, including weekend days. Late assignments will not be accepted beyond one week after the missed deadline. Presentations can not rescheduled. If you miss your group's presentation, you will receive a grade of zero.

Students with a documented reason for missing a deadline, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (Attending Physician Statement which can be found at: <http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf>) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

If you are missing a deadline due to illness, compassionate grounds, etc., you must contact the instructor/TA within 48 hours of missing the deadline.

Grading: As noted in Section I, the grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York. With increasing frequency, students have requested grade adjustments at the end of term, in service of enhancing their GPA standings. These requests will not be met. Grade adjustments, when warranted, will be applied to ALL students in the class, rather than on an individual basis. This practice is designed to ensure fairness.
