

YI Immigration Quick Facts

Immigration advising topics and resources

3 Main Documents Needed to Study in Canada

Study Permit

Immigration application resource page

Post-Graduation
Work Permit (PGWP)

On and off-campus
work authorization

Co-op work permit

1 Passport

Remember to extend or renew 6 months before expiration date

2 Study Permit

Remember to extend or renew 3-4 months before expiration date

3 TRV or eTA

DO NOT leave Canada if your TRV has expired

Beginning January 22, 2024, most international students will require an attestation letter from the province or territory in which they plan to study with every new study permit application

Conditions you need to meet as a study permit holder:

Be enrolled at a DLI

Actively pursue your studies

Notify IRCC any time you change DLIs

End your studies if you no longer meet the requirements and leave Canada when your authorized stay ends

If you don't meet these conditions, you may lose your student status and study permit. You may also have to leave Canada.

YI Immigration Quick Facts

Thinking about working part-time while pursuing your studies?

1 Check the study permit conditions to see if you can work

2 You must be a full-time student (apart from your final semester)

3 Have a valid Social Insurance Number (SIN)

4 Work authorization ends once you complete your program

On-Campus work and Off-Campus work has different policies. Remember to check the policy before you start work.

You are a student first. Your priorities must be on your studies and succeeding in your program.

What is full-time?

Undergraduates: 9 credits per Fall and Winter term (6 with a registered disability)

Graduates: Based on your program

SCS: Based on your program

Need immigration help?

Bookmark and check the YI events calendar regularly. Here you'll find advising schedule and information sessions on various immigration topics.

Visit York International website for information and guides to help you.

Email us at iadvisor@yorku.ca
Remember to include your student number in all communications with York University.

ONLY a licensed person can give immigration advice