

Indigenous Consultation

In order to identify whether the proposed course requires Indigenous consultation, please consider the following questions.

1. Does this course have substantial Indigenous content?
2. Will the course include Aboriginal/Indigenous identity as either a module or field of study?
3. Will the course include component(s) from Aboriginal/Indigenous Peoples' language, history, cultural heritage, artefacts, or traditional knowledge?
4. Will the course engage Aboriginal/Indigenous communities (including reserves, territories, departments, or community organizations, etc.) on experiential education.

* The Constitution Act, 1982, section 35(2) defines Aboriginal Peoples to include all Indigenous people of Canada – Indians (Status, Non-Status or First Nations identified), Métis and Inuit people.

Please find the consultation form in the curriculum website. If the proposed course includes above mentioned information, please complete the consultation form, and send the proposal and the completed course form for consultation to Indigenous Council at lapsindigenous@yorku.ca
