Criminology Curriculum Map
Cyclical Progra	m Review (2016)
		Year 1	Year 2			Year 3						Year 4
UDLES	Program Learning Outcome	1650	2650	2652	2653	3652	3654	3655	3656	3657	3658	4650	4652	4653	4654	4655	4656	4657	4658	4659	4660	Extended List
1. Depth and Breadth of Knowledge	Graduates will appreciate the major areas of study in criminology and the distinctly interdisciplinary nature of the field.		R	R		R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
	Graduates will be able to identify, evaluate, and contrast the different theoretical perspectives and traditions within criminology.	I	R	R		R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	M	M	М	М	М	М	M	М
	Graduates will understand the unique nature of 'critical' criminology particularly as it relates to the Canadian context. Graduates will develop a more specialized knowledge	I	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М of one or more areas within the field. Graduates will understand	I				R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	M	M	М	М	М	М	M	М
	the relationship between theory and policy and will be able to identify the theoretical foundations of different policies and the policy implications of different theories.	I	R	R		R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
2. Knowledge of Methodologies	Graduates will be able to identify and develop research questions.	I			R	R	R					М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
	Graduates will understand the key methods of criminological inquiry and their strengths and limitations.	I			R	R	R					М	М	M	M	М	М	М	М	М	M
	Graduates will know how to use criminological research methods to evaluate existing scholarship and to study research questions in the				I	R	R					М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М field. Graduates will appreciate the essentials of research design and how to conceive and execute a successful research project.				I	R	R					М	M	M	M	M	M	М	M	M	M
3. Application of Knowledge	Graduates will be able to evaluate different policy responses to crime and criminal justice (including their theoretical assumptions). Graduates will be able to undertake sustained research projects on their	ı	R	R	R	R R	R R	R	R	R	R	M	M	M	M	M	M	M	M	M	M
	own. Graduates will be able to critically examine public and scholarly accounts and representations of crime and criminal justice (e.g. media and popular culture).	I	R	R		R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
4. Communicatio n Skills	Graduates will be able to communicate orally and in writing to a range of different audiences (e.g. academic, practitioners, general public).	I	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
	Graduates will appreciate the variety of research, analytic, and communication skills involved in the production of academic criminological knowledge.	I			R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	M	М	М	М	М	M	М
5. Awareness of Limits of Knowledge	Graduates will understand the boundaries and limits of criminological knowledge.	I	R				R				R	М	М	M	М	М	М	М	М	М	M	М

	Graduates will be able to combine criminological knowledge with insights drawn from other discplines and fields.	I	R			R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
6. Autonomy and Professional Capacity	Graduates will be able to work independently and in groups.	-	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	M	М	M	М	М	М	М	М	М
	Graduates will appreciate and act in accordance with the norms of academic integrity, ethical research, and social responsibility.	I	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	M	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М
	Graduates will be reflexive with respect to their place in the world and will understand the perspectives and experiences of groups other than their own.	I	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	R	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	М	