McLaughlin College Event

McLaughlin College International Lecture Presented by Hilkka C. Becker

The UNHCR and the Enforcement of Refugee Protection before International Courts: Amicus and Third-Party Submissions before the ECtHR

Hosted by the Office of the College Head and Human Rights Watch (HRW).

Tuesday, December 7, 2021 from 12:30pm to 1:30pm via Zoom

This presentation will outline the potential wider application of UNHCR's amicus role in refugee cases before international courts. Using the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), as the prime example, it will explore the impact of the UNHCR's interventions on the evolution and development of international refugee law in Europe and conclude with the assessment of the use of strategic litigation by the UNHCR in fulfilling its supervisory role in the advancement of refugee protection.

HILKKA C. BECKER is the Chairperson of the International Protection Appeals Tribunal since April 2017. She was previously a Deputy Chairperson of the Tribunal and served as a parttime Member of the Refugee Appeals Tribunal from 2013 to 2016.
