

Arman Hamidian

I am serving as the Director of Membership and Partnerships with the York University School of Public Policy and Administration Alumni Network. I currently works at Santis Health as a Management Consultant in strategy and policy. Prior to this role, I worked as a Program Manager at SE Health, incorporating elements of design thinking to develop a toolkit for organizations to build affordable housing for older adults.

I previously worked in various research settings with a strong emphasis on social determinants of health, including the Centre for Urban Health Solutions, the Centre for Global Child Health the Dalla Lana School of Public Health, and the Wellesley Institute. In my capacity as Policy Researcher at the Wellesley Institute.

I have also worked in several Ministers' offices for the Ontario Government from 2015 – 2018, notably as a public appointments advisor and policy advisor.

I served as the Board Chair at Access Alliance Multicultural Health and Community Services for three years, and recently a board member at South Riverdale CHC. I recently completed my Master of Public Policy, Administration, and Law at York University (2022).
