Joseph Martino

Director – Special Investigations Unit at the Ministry of the Attorney General

Joseph Martino is a lawyer in the province of Ontario (Canada) and the director of the Special Investigations Unit, the province's civilian agency responsible for the independent investigation of incidents in which the police have caused serious injury or death, are the subject of a sexual assault complaint, or have discharged a firearm at a person. His statutory duty is to decide whether there are reasonable grounds in the evidence to proceed with criminal charges against the officer or officers under investigation.

Mr. Martino is a graduate of the University of Toronto, Faculty of Law (1997) and the Public Policy, Administration and Law graduate program at York University (2016).

Mr. Martino has published articles in the areas of policing practices, disclosure and production in criminal cases, leadership, and children's rights. He is also the co-author of Salhany's Police Manual of Arrest, Seizure and Interrogation.
