The National Annual Public Administration Case Competition is a joint project of CAPP and the Institute of Public Administration of Canada (IPAC). Canadian universities that have programs in public administration may compete. It is designed to highlight the excellence of Canadian public administration programs and students, and to provide a valuable learning experience for students.

Congratulations to the MPPAL students representing York at the University of Toronto's Policython Competition!

Aymen Afzal

Tyson Dimayuga

Aamina Masood

The University of Toronto's Policython, is a UofT based case competition/hackathon that challenges university students to engage with Canadian public policy and current events by prompting participants to create a policy brief resolving a given policy issue. While there are several universities holding this event in the United States (Harvard, Princeton, etc.), UofT's Policython is the first and largest Policython event held in the Canadian political context reviewing a comprehensive set of policy issues in human rights, foreign policy, economy, public health and environment.

Congratulations to Jocelyn and Sandra on their Success!

Congratulations to Jeffrey and Tyson on their new jobs!

Jeffrey Man joins the Ministry for Seniors and Accessibility

First year MPPAL student Jeffrey Man recently joined the Deputy Minister's Office at the Ministry for Seniors and Accessibility (MSAA), where he advises on policies, programs and initiatives that benefit older Ontarians and people with disabilities.

Jeffrey is passionate about all things across government integration, public service innovation, and organizational performance. Prior to joining MSAA, Jeffrey advised on HR programs and innovations at Cabinet Office and the Ministry of the Solicitor General.

Jeffrey credits MPPAL's commitment to integrity and excellence for his continued professional growth. "My MPPAL colleagues and professors challenge me to consistently provide thoughtful and nuanced advice each and every day. I would not be where I am without them."

Tyson Efren Jr. Dimayuga joins the Ministry of Education

I am excited to be starting a full-time role with the Ontario Public Service (OPS) as an Information Officer for the Stakeholder Relations and Data Collections Unit of the Ministry of Education in January 2024. In my new role, I will be responsible for the collection and quality assurance of student and teacher-level information data from various educational institutions and sources that will serve as a foundation for the policies and programs of the ministry.

In May 2023, my MPPAL journey started when I attended the networking event at the AGO where I immediately established connections with professors, alumni, and other students. Over the summer, I received co-op opportunities facilitated by Professor Couto, who actively encouraged incoming students to apply for the roles.

In my initial year of studies, I am pleased to have successfully landed a long-term position within the provincial government. I extend my sincere gratitude to Professors Naomi Couto, Ken Ogata, Ana Kapralos, and the entire SPPA and MPPAL community for their unwavering support. Salamat, thank you!

Please join us in Congratulating Jeffrey and Tyson!
