FAQ

How do we find people to go to frosh week with? Are there icebreakers or that sort of thing?

The first day of orientation week is the best time to make new friends to attend the rest of frosh with, On the first day you will be assigned to one of 4 teams where there will be ice breakers and small activities/games to strengthen your bond with your captains/leaders and fellow first years, there will also be a chance to bond with other attendees outside of your teams aswell!

What is Frosh?

Frosh is an exciting event designed specifically for incoming first-year students like you. It's a special orientation week organized by the college or university to welcome you to campus and help you get familiar with your new academic environment. During frosh, you'll have the chance to participate in various activities, workshops, and social events to meet other freshmen, upperclassmen, and faculty members. It's a fantastic opportunity to build new friendships, learn about campus resources, and get ready for an amazing start to your college experience!

Do I have to participate in all activities during Frosh Week?

No your are welcome to come join the events that interest you alternatively we have alternate events running if you would rather a change of pace compared to high energy social aspect of frosh Also our lounge space will also be open
