Special needs

One of École Centrale de Lyon's major priorities is ensuring accessibility to the School for a diverse public. The School believes that disabled people should be able to pursue an engineering education at Centrale Lyon, subject to the same opportunities and the same requirements as able-bodied students. The School is committed to assisting these students in achieving their personal study and professional goals within such a context.

A number of adjustments have been made to the campus in order to facilitate accessibility for people with a reduced capacity for mobility:

- Rooms available on the ground floor of the student residences;
- Special arrangements made in teaching buildings and research centres;
- Installation of elevators.

Additional services & Information

Health

The University Health Center (SSU), is located on the campuses of la Doua, Lyon Sud and Lyon Est. It is open to any Lyon 1 student. In April 2018, Lyon 1 was the first University of Lyon to open this kind of health center where students can meet doctors and get prescriptions.

The aim of this center is to prevent illness, promote health and treat students by appointment. The team is made up of doctors, nurses and psychologists. Students can also ask for a medical certificate for a sport activity or have blood tests.

Special needs

The Mission handicap service is dedicated to students in a health situation affecting their studies. They offer support that can continue until the student finds a job.

Today, about 600 students of Lyon 1 use this service. Students can benefit from a free and individual follow-up: accommodation for exams, studies and sports.

Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1 (Lyon)

Services and extracurricular activities

Culture

This University is definitely a place of culture open to everyone: live performances at the Astrée theater, artistic and cultural workshops and exhibitions.

Every year, plays, music and dance performances are held in the Astrée theater. Each season a full program is created. Lyon 1 students have free access to all the performances.

Since its creation twelve years ago, La Galerie Domus has been dedicated to contemporary photography. It is also located on the Doua campus in Villeurbanne.

A diverse student life

Student life is the heart of the campus. You will discover that Lyon 1 also offers regular events on campus, a lively community life and puts many services at your disposal. Hundreds of events are organized at the University: scientific conferences, student evenings, night sports tournaments, community gatherings, cultural performances, etc.

More than 60 student organizations are located on the campuses of Lyon 1! You will have the choice of getting involved in one of them.

During our orientation week, generally during the first week of September, many meetings and events are held so that you can discover the university life at Lyon 1.

The International Relations Office also organizes a specific afternoon for incoming students. It is an opportunity to meet other incoming students and also members of the sports and cultural associations during a French “goûter” (snack!).

To know more about the events organized at Lyon 1, you can log on the “portail étudiant” (student portal) or on our facebook “Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1”.

Sport

Through sports activities, Lyon 1 brings all students together. Sport is fully integrated into the campus with many sport facilities and the biggest university sports association. You can choose the activity that interests you and do it at your own level, during your spare time or for competition.

The University Service of Physical and Sports Activities (SUAPS) offers more than 30 disciplines supervised by instructors. Information and contacts are available on the website of the SUAPS.
