

Appendix: Conference Programme of “Citizenship, Identity, Community: Feminists (Re) Present the Political”, a Conference Hosted by the Women’s Caucus of York University’s Graduate Program in Political Science, March 19th and 20th, 1994,
 York University

* = authors with contributions in the present volume

Panel One: Citizenship at the Margins

- Ursula Biemann* Spaces In-Between: Images and Text by Women in Foreign Places
 (Switzerland)
- Vivan Loyal Dames *Bearing Rights, Bearing Culture:
 The Politics of Citizenship,
 Motherhood and Self-Determination for Indigenous Women in Guam*
 (U. of Michigan)
- Pura Sanchez Zamorano* *Richard Rorty’s World
 Bazaar: Ethnocentrist,
 Post-Humanist Solidarity*
 (U. of Toronto)

Panel Two: Feminist Pedagogy

- Sheila Cavanaugh Schooling the Subject: a Textual Analysis of Identity Construction in the Classroom
 (York)
- Suzanne Luhmann A Genealogy of Feminist Pedagogy: Feminist Poststructuralism and Critical Pedagogy
 (York)

- Katarzyna Rukszto The Location of Teaching Assistants: Some Questions About the Theorizing of Feminist Pedagogy
 (York)

Panel Three: Issues on Gender and the ‘Third World’

- Colleen O’Manique *AIDS Knowledges and AIDS Policy: Where Ugandan
 Women Figure in the Global Response*
 (York)
- Joanne Wright* Toward a Feminist Deconstruction of Development Theory
 (U. New Brunswick)

Panel Four: Feminists (Re) Present International Relations

- Suzanne Baustad Border Crossings: The Figure of the Prostitute in Discourses and Global (Dis)Order
 (York)
- Patricia Molloy *‘Subversive Strategies’, or Subverting
 Strategy: Toward a Feminist Pedagogy for Peace*
 (York)
- Kurtis Simpson *The Unreality of Realism:
 Critical Theory and Why Feminist Approaches to International Relations
 Can No Longer Be Ignored*
 (York)

Panel Five: Problematizing Community: Beyond Atomism and Essentialism

- Nicole Carey Feminisms, Hegemony and the Search for Social Change
 (SUNY at Albany)

Cressida Heyes*
(McGill) Investigating Wittgenstein

Cindy Holder
(York) *Identity, Oppression and Access:
Moving Beyond the Atomistic Citizen*

Lisa Tessman
(U of Mass., Amherst) *Political Community and Complex Identity:
Who are My People?*

Panel Six: Theorizing Motherhood

Caroline Danielson
(SUNY at Albany) *Citizen Mothers in an Industrial Age: Jane Addams, Charlotte
Perkins Gilman and the Trajectory of Citizenship in the United States*

Larissa Silver
(U of Manitoba) *Unionizing Motherhood: Increasing Political, Economic and Social Power Through an Organized
Community of Women*

Panel Seven: Employment Equity / Public Policy

Wendy Cukier *Effecting Political Change in Canada:
The Gun Control Experience*

Barbara Falk
(York) *Politics, Language and the State:
The (Re) Presentation and (Law)
Making Women's Issues*

Cheryl Nafziger-Leis
(U of Toronto) *Employment Equity and
'Identity Thinking': Constructing Illusions of Change*

Panel Eight: Limitations of the Academic Feminist Community

Sylvia Bardon & Phyllis Foden
(U of Victoria) *Assaults on Feminist Community and Identity: 'Our Friends Gave us
the Cold Shoulder'*

Helen Eaton-Ramirez & Charles Redmond Fernando
(U of Toronto) *The Citizen and the Academy:
Fruitful Tension?*

Panel Nine: The Construction of Marginalized Identities

Raymond Familusi Black Wholes, Place and Identity

Peg Tittle
(Concordia) Identity Politics

Rinaldo Walcott
(OISE) *In Search of the Third Space:
Identities, Boundaries and Politics*

Panel Ten: Race, Class and Gender

Howie Chodos
(Manchester) (no title available)

Rohit Lekhi*
(Manchester) The Context(s) of Class

Tammy-Lynn Tkachuk
(Dalhousie) Affirming Identity and Diversity in Community

Paul Whitely
(Carleton) How to Theorize Multiple Structures of Oppression

Panel Eleven: Cultural Practices and Strategies for Resistance

- Michelle Berger
(U of Michigan) No Charmed Circle: Women's Music Festivals / Women's Community: Surviving in a Postmodern World
- Michelle Gagnon
(Concordia) Cultural Sovereignty: Quebecois Nationalism and Television
- Suzanne LaGrande
(U of Mass., Amherst) Toward a Conception of Feminist Political Resistance
- Kalli Paakspuu
(U of Toronto) Dissociation in Postmodern Popular Culture — Exploring the Boundaries of the Multiple Self in Contemporary Magazines

Panel Twelve: Feminism, Critical Theory and Post-Metaphysical Thought

- Stella Gaon*
(OISE) Thinking the Ethical Relation: The Implications of Deconstruction for Feminist Political Theory
- Monique Lanoix*
(McGill) Liberal Democratic Theory and the Situated Individual
- Graham Longford
(York) 'Disciplining Foucault', Redescribing Rorty: Feminist Encounters with Genealogy and Irony

Panel Thirteen: Feminist Organizing and Community Politics

- Nora Jung
(York) Women in a New Eastern Europe: The Hungarian Case
- Michelle Perez*
(McMaster) A Woman-Centred Theoretical Perspective on Interest Groups
- Sylvie Murray
(Yale) Gender and the Politics of Community in the Post World War II US
- Sandra Preston
(McMaster) The Hamilton Women's Centre (1973-74): An Illustration of the Politics of the Resurgence in Feminism
- Susan Quass
(Clark University, Mass.) International Organizing and Solidarity: The Women and Health Documentation Centre Network

Panel Fourteen: Theorizing Violence

- David Frazee
(U of Michigan, Ann Arbor) The Story of 'Stephanie R': Gender, Violence and Civil Rights for Lesbians and Gay Men
- Julianne Pidduck*
(Concordia) Mediated Violence Against Women and the Production of Everyday Fear

Panel Fifteen: Reclaiming the Subject: Female Autobiographies and Narratives of Resistance

- Gayle Irwin
(York) *The Case of 'I Rigoberta Menchu':
Speaking of/about/in/through the Margins*
- David Pottie
(York) Negotiating Identity: Narratives of Love and the Death of the Political Subject