

THE CENTRE FOR INDIGENOUS
KNOWLEDGES AND LANGUAGES

RESEARCH SEMINAR

Amplifying Indigenous Voices in Dementia Caregivers

Dr. Don Davies

The Canadian Indigenous population has an increased prevalence and earlier onset of dementia than the Canadian non-Indigenous population. We are interviewing unpaid Métis dementia caregivers to identify the available services for people with dementia in the Métis population. We will implement the results for knowledge translation and influence policy development to identify strategies that help ease burdens associated with Métis dementia caregiving.

Postdoctoral Fellow
Dept of Biology, YorkU

Mon, October 17
7-8:30 PM (EST)

CIKL
YORK Centre for Indigenous
Knowledges and Languages

REGISTRATION

