

Career | Fit

Professional Experience Programs

Give yourself a Competitive Advantage in the job market.

Free to undergrads at Canadian universities who are aged 18-25 and identify as Asian, Career | Fit Programs are short, conveniently scheduled online offerings with a business-focus that supplement your academic curriculum. They can open doors to your future by developing your practical skills and helping you stand out to employers.

Supported by

Future Launch

Delivered by York University's...

Asian Business and Management Program

Featuring a Hands-on Project and Mentor

Work on a current industry project in a team while being mentored by an expert from a Fortune 500 company.

Bridge Theory to Practice

Gain insight into the knowledge, skills and capabilities required to be successful in the sector.

Get Noticed with a Unique Certificate

Added Bonus: Students in each program's winning group also receive a mentor's letter of recommendation.

Each program is only six weeks long (12 x two-hour sessions, delivered live, online twice weekly).

Choose from five cutting-edge programs.
But space is limited, so apply early!

1. Money, Our Values & Banking Operations: A Competitive Analysis of RBC & Competitor ESG Reports (RBC Mentor) • May 6 - June 12, 2024
2. Developing a Digital Transformation and Technology Strategy within Salesforce (Salesforce Mentor) • May 7 - June 13, 2024
3. Data Analytics And Machine Learning Applications In Business Optimization (IBM Mentor) • June 18 - July 25, 2024
4. Sustainable Mobility: EV Infrastructure and ESG Strategy in North America (PwC Mentor) • June 22 - July 28, 2024
5. Fintech and the Rise of Digital Assets (RBC Mentors) • July 3 - August 11, 2024

Scan QR code or visit go.yorku.ca/abmp for full program details and application requirements.