- 1.1. The Senate is responsible for the academic policy of the University and may recommend to the Board the establishment of Faculties, Schools, Institutes and Departments, and the establishment of Chairs, and may establish Councils in the Faculties, Schools or Institutes established, and may enact by-laws, rules and regulations for the conduct of its affairs, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, has power
- a. to consult with the Board and to make recommendations as to the appointment of the Chancellor and President
 - b. to determine and regulate the standards for the admission of students to the University, the contents and curricula of all courses of study, and the requirements for graduation
 - c. to conduct examinations and appoint examiners
 - d. to deal with matters arising in connection with the award of fellowships, scholarships, medals, prizes and other awards for academic achievement
 - e. to confer the degree of Bachelor, Master and Doctor and all other degrees, diplomas and certificates in all branches of learning that may appropriately be conferred by a university
 - f. after consultation with the Board, to confer honorary degrees.

(York University Act, Legislature of Ontario, 1965, c. 143, s.12)

- 1.2. Senate has a responsibility to conduct its business and carry forward its mandate of academic governance as described in the York Act.
- 1.3. The following principles inform the rules of Senate, and the interpretation and application of the rules shall be consistent with these principles:
- a. Senate shall provide Senators with due notice of matters to be decided at a meeting.
 - b. Senate is open to the University community unless it duly resolves to move into closed session. Community access to Senate meetings held virtually will be facilitated by livestreaming or a comparable online option.
 - c. Senators have a duty to attend meetings of the Senate and to vote on resolutions which come before the Senate. In so doing, Senators have an obligation to act with civility and decorum.

- d. Senate shall provide Senators with the opportunity to debate issues under consideration before a decision is made.
 - e. Unless specifically indicated otherwise, Senate shall make its decisions on the basis of a simple majority of those Senators present and voting at a duly constituted meeting.
 - f. All Senators have the same rights and obligations under Senates rules.
- 1.4. The Chair of Senate shall enforce the rules in the spirit of these principles and, in so doing, will act fairly and impartially.

Matters Not Covered by These Rules

- 1.5. These rules are inspired by the parliamentary traditions of Canada and other democratic jurisdictions and reflect these traditions as interpreted by recognized authorities.
- 1.6. These rules are intended to be comprehensive. When an issue not foreseen by these rules arises, the Chair, in keeping with the principles outlined in the preamble, shall normally consult with Senate Executive prior to making a ruling. The Chair shall report on the issue at the next meeting of Senate, which may consider what action to amend these rules and procedures, if any, should occur.

2. MEMBERSHIP OF SENATE

- 2.1 Senate membership is established in accordance with section 12 of the York University Act. The current membership is set out in Appendix A.

Election, Term of Office and Duties of Chair and Vice-Chair

- 2.2. The Chair shall be elected by Senate to serve for a period of eighteen months. The Vice-Chair is elected by Senate and serves for a period of eighteen months and succeeds the Chair for eighteen months.

Duties of the Chair

- 2.3. The Chair of Senate is responsible for giving leadership to the Senate in the pursuit of its mandate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Chair presides at all meetings of Senate, ensures order is preserved at meetings, acts as the official spokesperson for Senate, chairs the Executive Committee of Senate, and ensures that Senate and its committees operate in conformity with the rules enacted by Senate.

Duties of the Vice-Chair

- 2.4. The Vice-Chair of Senate assists the Chair in giving leadership to Senate, serves as the vice- chair of the Senate Executive Committee, and presides at meetings of Committee of the Whole. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice-Chair may exercise any and all powers and authorities of the Chair. The Vice-Chair of Senate succeeds the Chair at the expiration of the Chair's term or in the event of the Chair's resignation. The Vice-Chair is the Chief Teller for all votes at Senate meetings where in-person voting is conducted by paper ballot or a show of hands.

Secretary of Senate

- 2.5. The Secretary of Senate is appointed by the President and is responsible for the proper maintenance of Senate's records. The Secretary attends all meetings of the Senate and prepares minutes of all proceedings. The Secretary prepares all resolutions, reports or other documents which the Senate may direct, and all copies which may be required of any such document, prepares and countersigns all official documents, and generally discharges such other duties as may be assigned by the Senate or, when the Senate is not in session, by the Chair. In the case of the absence or illness of the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary shall act as Secretary pro tempore and for such period shall have all the powers of the Secretary.

Eligibility for the Election of Faculty Members

- 2.6. All full-time and contract faculty members are eligible for membership on Senate. Faculty Councils are responsible for reporting the results of their elections of full-time and contract faculty member representatives on Senate.

Election of Student Senators

- 2.7. Faculty Councils are responsible for reporting the results of elections of student representatives to Senate.

Terms of Senators

- 2.8. Apart from those Senators defined by the York University Act (1965) as ex officio members, all Senators shall serve for a three-year term (re-election being possible), one-third retiring each year, except for student Senators whose terms of office shall be for two years from July 1 and for representatives of contract faculty whose term of office shall be one year from July 1 following their election.

Substitutes, Proxies and Designated Alternates

- 2.9. Unless provision has been made for a designated alternate in the membership list found at Appendix A, elected and ex officio members shall not be entitled to designate a substitute or to vote by proxy. [Amended February 25, 2016]
- 2.10. Designated alternates may cast a vote only in the absence of the regular member.
- 2.11. Designated alternates must report to the Chair and Secretary prior to a meeting at which they will attend and vote in the absence of the regular member.

Failure to Attend Meetings, Temporary Absences and Resignation

- 2.12. Elected Senators are deemed to have resigned upon accepting a full-time teaching position in another Faculty of York or at another University.
- 2.13. Senate Executive shall inform Faculty Councils of the names of elected Senators who miss three consecutive meetings. Councils may declare the seats vacant and elect replacements for Senators who have missed three consecutive meetings.
- 2.14. Senators holding an elected seat who wish to retain their Senate seat while on leave for a term or more shall so inform the Secretary of the University, in writing, by April 1 of the academic year preceding the one in which leave is to be taken. Senators on leave who do not inform the Secretary of their intentions shall be deemed to have resigned their seats.

- 2.15. In the case of Senators opting to retain their seats while on leave for a term or more (including sabbaticals) shall so inform the Secretary of the University, in writing, by April 1 of the academic year preceding the one in which leave is to be taken. Senators on leave who do not inform the Secretary of their intentions shall be deemed to have resigned their seats.
- 2.16. Senators on leave in the third year of their term are automatically deemed to have resigned their seats.
- 2.17. Students who cease to be enrolled in the Faculty that elected them also cease to be Senators or members of a Senate committee. Students may continue to serve to the end of June if they graduate at the Spring Convocation.
- 2.18. Elected Senators automatically vacate their elected seats when they accept an ex officio seat on Senate.

Periodic Review and Publication of Senate Membership Reviews

- 2.19. Senate Executive shall review changes in structures, faculty complements and student enrolments every two years and will recommend to Senate that seats be reallocated as necessary.
- 2.20. Membership rules shall be published in these Rules and the membership list provided in Appendix A.

3. MEETINGS OF SENATE

Regular Meeting Date and Time

- 3.1 Senate shall meet at 3:00 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of each month except July and August. No meeting may go beyond 5:00 p.m. unless a motion to this effect is passed by a two-thirds majority of Senators present and voting, or unless the agenda clearly indicates an alternate termination time as determined by the Executive Committee.

Special Meetings

- 3.2 The Chair may call a special meeting at any time. A special meeting shall also be called by the Chair on receipt of a signed petition submitted to the Secretary by a minimum of 18 Senators. The petition shall specify the purpose of and need for the special meeting. [June 28, 2001]. For the purpose of requesting a special meeting of Senate, individual petitioners may send an electronic communication in lieu of signing a petition.
- 3.3 Normal rules will be observed at special meetings of Senate with the following exceptions:
- a. Notice: The period of notice for a special meeting is a minimum of twenty-four hours, and
 - b. Business: Only items of business specifically identified in the notification of such meeting can be transacted at a special meeting (i.e., there is no “Other Business” on the agenda).

Summer Authority

- 3.4 Between the June meeting of Senate and the first regular meeting of Senate in September, the Executive Committee of Senate shall possess and may exercise any or all of the powers, authorities, and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Senate, save and except only such acts as may by law be performed by the members of Senate themselves and the Executive Committee shall report to the Senate at its first regular meeting in September, what action has been taken under this authority.

Alternative Meeting Dates and Times

- 3.5 Senate Executive may set an alternate meeting time and day. Meetings that begin at a time other than 3:00 p.m. will end after no more than two hours, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting or if the agenda clearly indicates an alternative termination time as determined by the Executive Committee.

Transaction of Business by Electronic Communications

- 3.6 In exceptional circumstances, the Executive Committee may authorize the transaction of Senate business by electronic communications. This may include the transmittal of reports or the conducting of votes on Senate business. The Executive Committee will provide a rationale for its authorizations.
- 3.7 Senate committees may transact business by means of electronic communications.

Meeting Cancellation

- 3.8 If the Executive Committee determines that there is insufficient business ready for consideration by Senate, it may agree not to hold a regular meeting.

Quorum

- 3.9 Senate may convene and conduct business only when 20 per cent or more of its membership is present at a regular or special meeting. If, during a duly constituted meeting the Chair observes (independently or at the request of a Senator) that quorum is no longer present, the Chair may adjourn the meeting.

Meeting Agenda and Order of Business

- 3.10 The agenda of each regular meeting of Senate is set by the Executive Committee and is published or circulated to each member of Senate no later than six days prior to the meeting for which notice is being given. The accidental omission of notice to a member shall not invalidate a meeting which has otherwise been duly convened. The agenda page or reports shall identify any additional items which may be dealt with or supplementary documents that will be distributed prior to or at a meeting.
- 3.11 Unless Senate Executive exercises its authority to alter the agenda, the items of business considered at a meeting of the Senate will follow this order, without variation, except with the consent of two-thirds of Senators present and voting:
 - a. Chair's Remarks
 - b. Business Arising from the Minutes
 - c. Inquiries and Communications (Colleague's Report and other items)
 - d. Report of the President

- e. Reports of Standing Committees Reports of Special Committees
 - f. Other Business for Which Due Notice Has Been Given
 - g. Other Business
 - h. Consent agenda (Minutes, Board synopsis and other items)
- 3.12 The Executive Committee may alter the order of the agenda for a particular meeting in order to prioritize matters coming before Senate provided that the order of business appears on the notice of meeting.
- 3.13 The notice of meeting may identify items to be dealt with by consent. A consent agenda item is deemed to be approved unless, prior to the commencement of a meeting, one or more Senators advises the Chair of a request to debate it.

Open and Closed Sessions

- 3.14 Meetings of Senate held in person or in hybrid mode¹ are open to members of the University community, subject to the availability of physical space. Meetings of Senate held exclusively in virtual mode will normally be restricted to Senators to ensure the integrity of voting. Virtual meetings will be livestreamed for members of the University community to observe the proceedings.

In Camera Meetings

- 3.15 In the event extenuating circumstances prevent a meeting from proceeding in the planned in-person or hybrid mode, the decision will be made by the Chair of Senate, with the advice of the Executive Committee where possible, to move the meeting to a virtual mode of delivery.
- 3.16 When Senate considers matters relating to specific individuals or to other matters where confidentiality must be observed, the Executive Committee may, in the notice for a meeting, declare part of a meeting to be in camera.
- 3.17 If notice has not been given by Senate Executive, a motion to conduct all or part of a meeting in camera requires a majority of Senators present and voting.
- 3.18 When Senate meets in camera, only Senators and staff of the University Secretariat may be present

¹ Hybrid meetings combine in-person and virtual modes of delivery.

Senate Documentation

- 3.19 Documents shall only be distributed at Senate meetings with the approval of Senate Executive, the Chair of Senate or the Secretary of Senate.
- 3.20 All formal actions and decisions by Senate and its standing committees shall be recorded in minutes. The minutes of Senate and Senate committees are maintained in the University Secretariat, and documentation is available for examination with the exception of material that is identified as confidential.
- 3.21 The agenda and minutes for each meeting of Senate shall be sent to the Secretary of each Faculty Council.
- 3.22 A synopsis of the actions taken at each meeting shall be made available to Faculty Councils and published in the daily bulletin or other campus media.
- 3.23 Minutes of each Senate meeting shall be posted on the University Secretariat Website.
- 3.24 A synopsis of each meeting of the Board of Governors shall be provided to Senate.
- 3.25 Senate Executive may declare that certain documents are confidential.

Items for Information

- 3.26 Information published in the agenda for a meeting of Senate, or any matter distributed at a meeting of Senate, or transmitted to Senators by other means, is deemed to have been received by Senate.

Audio and Visual Recording

- 3.27 No audio or visual recordings of Senate meetings, whether live or through audio or video streaming, are permitted except with the agreement of the Chair, who shall announce the presence of persons authorized to make such recordings.

4. MOTIONS

- 4.1 All decisions are to be framed in the form of a motion and must be accompanied by a rationale which explains the import of the motion, outlines its intended consequences, and reports on the consultations undertaken in its preparation.

Types of Motions

- 4.2 Motions are categorized as follows:
- a. Substantive motions: Substantive motions propose that Senate exercise its authority to achieve a specified substantive objective.
 - b. Statutory motions: Senate determines what matters are statutory in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, these include:
 - i the establishment of Faculties or other academic units (with the exception of research centres which are established according to the Senate Policy on Organized Research Units)
 - ii the establishment of Faculty Councils
 - iii the establishment of degrees
 - iv the establishment or dissolution of a Committee of Senate
 - v changes in Senate and committee rules including those related to membership
- 4.3 Procedural motions: Procedural motions relate only to process and not to substance (e.g. adjournment, referral, etc.).
- 4.4 Hortative motions are advisory in nature. They express Senate's opinion on matters lying outside its jurisdiction.

Notice of Motion

- 4.5 Substantive and hortative motions intended for Senate's consideration at its regular monthly meeting or special meeting of Senate must be submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration at its regular monthly meeting, which is normally held in the two weeks prior to regular meetings of Senate. Substantive and hortative motions intended for consideration at a special meeting of Senate must be submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration prior to the finalization of the agenda for the special meeting.
- 4.6 No notice is required for a procedural motion.

Determining That Motions Are in Order

- 4.7 The Chair, with the advice of the Executive Committee, is responsible for determining if motions submitted for Senate's consideration in advance of regular or special meetings by committees, Councils, Senators and others are in order.
- 4.8 All motions circulated with the agenda are deemed to be in order.
- 4.9 All rulings by the Chair of Senate that a motion is not in order will be reported to Senate by the Chair together with a rationale for the ruling. Any such ruling is subject to appeal.
- 4.10 Substantive and hortative motions for which notice has not been given to Senate Executive [as set out in Paragraph 4.5] must be delivered to the Chair in writing at least one business day before the commencement of a meeting for a determination whether a motion is in order; the Chair has discretion to exercise flexibility on the deadline.

Motions That Are Debatable

- 4.11 The following motions are debatable:
 - a. substantive, hortative and statutory motions
 - b. amendments to substantive, hortative and statutory motions
 - c. sub-amendments to amendments, as above
 - d. referral (debate is limited to the issues raised by the referral)
 - e. changes to the order of the agenda
 - f. rescinding previous actions
 - g. limitations on the duration of a debate or on the length of time Senators may speak.

Dividing (or "Severing") a Motion

- 4.12 If a motion raises more than one issue for decision, the Chair may, with the agreement of the mover and seconder, divide the motion in a manner which will help Senate deal effectively with the issues.
- 4.13 A motion may also be divided by means of a procedural motion to do so.
- 4.14 A motion to divide shall take precedence over the substantive or hortative motion under debate.
- 4.15 There is no debate on a motion to divide.

Amendments

- 4.16 An amendment is designed to alter the main motion without substantially changing its intent and shall be strictly relevant to the business under consideration.
- 4.17 The Chair shall rule out of order any amendment which would negate or substantially alter the intent of the main motion.
- 4.18 An amendment to a substantive or hortative motion may be moved without notice during debate on the main motion.
- 4.19 Normally the mover of an amendment is required to provide a written version of the amendment to the Chair.
- 4.20 If a motion to amend is seconded and recognized by the Chair to be in order, discussion will be limited to the issues raised by the amendment until the amendment is resolved.
- 4.21 Only one amendment to a motion may be on the floor at one time.
- 4.22 Each amendment must be resolved before another amendment or the main motion may be considered.

Sub-Amendments

- 4.23 A sub-amendment is intended to amend an amendment under consideration.
- 4.24 A sub-amendment can only be moved when an amendment is on the floor.
- 4.25 Normally the mover of a sub-amendment is required to provide a written version of the amendment to the Chair.
- 4.26 A sub-amendment is out of order if it has the effect of negating the amendment or altering the amendment to such an extent that it significantly frustrates the purpose of the amendment.
- 4.27 If a sub-amendment is seconded and recognized by the Chair to be in order, discussion will be limited to the issues raised by the sub-amendment until such time as the sub-amendment is resolved.
- 4.28 Only one sub-amendment may be on the floor at one time and must be resolved before another may be considered.
- 4.29 Sub-amendments must be resolved before the amendment can be resolved.

“Friendly” Amendments

- 4.30 During the course of debate, the mover and seconder may receive suggestions from the floor about the wording of motions. If the mover and seconder of a motion agree that the intent of the motion would be clarified by a change of wording, they may, with the agreement of the Chair alter the wording of the motion accordingly.
- 4.31 Any proposed change to the wording which significantly alters the intent of a motion is not a friendly amendment and may be ruled as such by the Chair.

Resolving a Motion, Amendment, or Sub-Amendment

- 4.32 Motions, amendments, or sub-amendments which are moved, seconded, and recognized by the Chair to be on the floor of Senate for discussion must be brought to a vote unless debate is ended by an intervening and overriding procedural motion.
- 4.33 A motion may be withdrawn by the mover and seconder if no Senator objects. If there is an objection the question of withdrawal may be put to a vote.
- 4.34 The Chair may request that the mover and seconder withdraw a motion if it appears that further debate is not in the best interests of Senate.

Procedural Motions

- 4.35 Most procedural motions are not debatable.
- 4.36 If a non-debatable motion has been moved, the Chair may invite the mover of the motion to explain in brief the reason for the motion.
- 4.37 Procedural motions require a mover and seconder and take precedence over the statutory, substantive or hortative motions which are under at the time they are moved.
- 4.38 The Chair may recognize other procedural motions (such as a motion to recess for a specified time) in circumstances where the implementation of such a motion would assist Senate in conducting its business effectively.

Motion to Refer (Debatable in part)

- 4.39 Although procedural in nature, a motion to refer has substantive elements that are debatable. In particular, a motion to refer must identify the person or body to whom the reference is made.

- 4.40 A motion to refer is in order when a substantive or hortative motion is on the floor of Senate for discussion. A motion to refer is not in order when an amendment or sub- amendment is on the floor.
- 4.41 When a motion to refer is on the floor, only issues relating to the nature of the proposed referral may be debated (for example, to whom the reference is made, why the reference is being made, when a report back should be expected, etc.).
- 4.42 If a motion to refer is defeated, no further motion to refer may be considered with respect to the specific substantive or hortative motion being considered unless, in the opinion of the Chair, significant new information has been provided in the debate which would warrant the re- consideration of a referral.

Motion to Put the Question

- 4.43 A motion to put the question may be considered when a main motion, amendment, sub-amendment, or a debatable procedural motion is on the floor.
- 4.44 If a motion to put the question is resolved in the affirmative, the Chair invites the mover of the main motion to make concluding remarks and then puts the question to Senate.
- 4.45 If a motion to put the question is resolved in the negative, debate on the main motion resumes.
- 4.46 No further motion to put the question can be considered regarding the same motion unless, in the opinion of the Chair, the nature of the subsequent debate warrants the consideration of such motion.

Motion to Introduce Business for Which Due Notice Has Not Been Given

- 4.47 A motion to consider matters for which due notice has not been given shall be considered under the agenda item of “Other Business.”
- 4.48 A motion to introduce new business without due notice is in order only if a written copy of the motion is filed with the Chair at least one day before the meeting so that the Chair may determine if the motion is in order and may inform Senators at the beginning of the meeting as to the business to be considered at the meeting. The Chair has discretion to exercise flexibility on the deadline.
- 4.49 The consideration of new business for which due notice has not been given can only proceed with the consent of two-thirds of Senators present and voting.

Motion to Move into Committee of the Whole

- 4.50 A motion to move into Committee of the Whole is in order when any substantive or hortative motion, amendment, or sub-amendment is under consideration.

Motion to Adjourn Debate

- 4.51 A motion to adjourn debate is always in order.
- 4.52 If a motion to adjourn debate is carried, Senate shall move immediately to the next item of business.
- 4.53 The Chair, with the advice of the Executive Committee shall determine when and how the debate will be resumed.

Motion to Adjourn the Meeting

- 4.54 A motion to adjourn the meeting is always in order.
- 4.55 If a motion to adjourn the meeting is carried, the meeting ends immediately following the vote.

Motion to Extend and Further Extend the Meeting

- 4.56 A motion to extend a meeting is always in order.
- 4.57 A motion to extend a meeting shall specify the new time by which the meeting will conclude.
- 4.58 If a motion to extend a meeting is defeated, only one other such motion to extend may be considered subsequently.
- 4.59 A meeting can only be extended with the consent of two-thirds of Senators present and voting.

Motion to Permit a Non-Senator to Address Senate

- 4.60 A motion to permit a non-Senator to address Senate is always in order.
- 4.61 While there is no debate on such a motion, the mover shall provide a brief rationale.

Precedence of Motions

- 4.62 The Chair shall give precedence to motions as follows (from highest precedence to lowest):
- a. to adjourn the meeting

- b. to adjourn debate (or “table” a motion)
- c. to put the question
- d. to move in camera
- e. to move into Committee of the Whole
- f. to permit a non-member of Senate to speak
- g. to refer
- h. to amend an amendment
- i. to amend.

5. DEBATES AND MOTIONS

Participation in Discussion and Debate by Senators and Non-Senators

- 5.1 Only Senators may participate in discussions and debates.
- 5.2 On occasion, Senate may wish to hear from persons who are not Senators. The Executive Committee or Chair may extend an invitation to a non-Senator to speak to Senate. Senate itself may, by majority resolution, agree to hear non-Senators on a particular subject for the purpose of adding new information within their expertise.

Debating a Motion

- 5.3 Senators may speak to any debatable motion but may speak only once to each such motion and for a maximum of 5 minutes to maximize Senator participation in debate.

Exceptions are as follows:

- a. the mover of a motion is entitled to speak first and last, each time for up to 5-minutes,
 - b. the Chair determines that circumstances warrant extending the speaking time and specifies the amount of additional time allotted to the speaker in such instances.
 - c. the mover, or an expert designated by the mover, may respond to questions as necessary or clarify material issues.
- 5.4 The Chair may rule out of order any remarks which are not relevant to the issue before Senate.

Voting

- 5.5 Only Senators may vote at Senate meetings. Elected and ex-officio Senators enjoy the same voting rights.
- 5.6 Votes can only be cast by Senators in attendance at a meeting, whether in a virtual or in-person mode of delivery.
- 5.7 When the Chair is satisfied that the debate on an item has covered a full range of issues, or when a motion to call the question has been approved, the Chair shall call the question.

- 5.8 When a question has been called, no motion can be made, and no other intervention or discussion is permitted until voting is completed and the results announced.

1. SENATE NOMINATIONS RULES AND PROCEDURES

- 1.1. The following are the general procedures and guidelines used by the Senate Executive Committee in the nomination process for membership on Senate committees and other positions elected by Senate.

Principles

As part of its commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion, Senate aims to constitute a body that is reflective of the diversity of the University community and in our society. Senate explicitly articulates its commitment and desire to enhance institutional equity, diversity and inclusion through its membership in the plenary, its standing committees and other elected positions.

Procedures

- 1.2. The following actions are taken to broadcast opportunities and build awareness about participating in Senate governance and to develop annual slates of nominations that include individuals who self-identify as members of equity groups:
- a. call for nominations is issued which lists vacancies and provides information about committees and positions
 - b. Faculty Councils, Deans and Principal are asked for suggestions
 - c. members of the Senate Executive Committee suggest names
 - d. the names of those who have served on Senate Committees in the past are reviewed

Elections and Acclamations

- 1.3. Senate Executive shall endeavour to:
- a. identify sufficient numbers of candidates to construct a slate leading to a vote and encourage Faculty Councils to maximize the number of individuals standing for election to Faculty-designated seats on relevant Senate committees. This is a guiding principle and not a requirement for election processes, which may result in acclamations.
 - b. identify nominations from diverse candidates from equity groups.

Nomination Guidelines and Criteria

- 1.4. The selection of faculty members for nomination to Senate Committees and legislated sub committees will be conducted in such a way as to draw on the various talents and the diversity of members of all Faculties of the University.
- 1.5. Notwithstanding the suggestions made or the interest shown by individuals, nominees selected for a ballot/acclamation are considered in the context of the following criteria:
 - a. the responsibilities of the position and any specific requirements which can be reasonably anticipated in the coming three-year period
 - b. the skills, including leadership skills, which the candidates would bring to the position
 - c. the experience which the candidates would bring to the position
 - d. the current and historical balance among Faculties, in the case of non-designated committees
 - e. the current and historical balance of diversity of members from equity groups²
 - f. the range of skills and experience of other continuing members of the committee
 - g. the level of interest of the candidate in the subject matter
 - h. the availability of the individual to attend meetings and contribute to the work of the committee
 - i. the ability of the individual to participate in the work of the committee through the electronic medium where this is an important and ongoing modality of the Committee
- 1.6. Normally, faculty members should not succeed themselves on a committee, although for reasons of continuity, special skills, or other exceptional reasons it may be advisable in a particular circumstance to waive this practice. Application of this practice should vary according to the committee. Non-succession is mandatory in the case of Tenure and Promotions, advisable in the case of Academic Policy, Planning and Research Committee (and perhaps the Executive Committee) and followed generally where possible.
- 1.7. In applying the criteria above, a special effort should be made to include junior and less experienced faculty in the work of committees as a means of developing them for further service in the future.

² “equity groups” includes women, Black, racialized persons and Indigenous Peoples, persons with a disability, and persons who identify in the 2SLGBTQ+ community.

- 1.8. Leadership ability and relevant experience in any relevant context must be present in those being put forward for senior positions and committees.
- 1.9. The overall objective of the nomination and election procedure is to produce committees that will exercise well and responsibly the trust that Senate has placed in them.
- 1.10. Notwithstanding all of the practices summarized above, the Executive Committee must exercise its best judgment and do so with the best interests of York University at heart.
- 1.11. Senate has the final say: additional nominees will be accepted if the individual nominated has agreed to stand, is available to meet at the standing meeting times, and meets the criteria.
