

2024 Winter Term Course Drop Deadline: Date Will Be Extended

Communication from the Executive Committee of Senate

28 February 2024

Pursuant to its declaration that the Senate Policy on the Academic Implications of Disruptions or Cessations of University Business Due to Labour Disputes or Other Causes is in force, the Senate Executive Committee met on 27 February 2024 in its role of overseeing the process of directing and implementing necessary remedial actions.

Due to the labour disruption, the Executive Committee has determined that the 11 March 2024 deadline¹ for students to withdraw from an undergraduate Winter term course without receiving a grade or a “Withdrawn” (W) notification on transcripts will be extended to the last day of classes. Currently the last day of classes is 8 April 2024. If the length of the disruption results in a decision by Senate Executive to change term dates, the deadline to drop a course will remain the last of classes in any revised schedule.

Note:

- the extension applies to undergraduate courses only (i.e., it is not applicable to graduate courses or the JD program at Osgoode)
- the extension applies to Winter term courses only
- there is no adjustment of the deadline for Y (six-credit) courses for which the drop date fell before the disruption began on 26 February 2024
