

THE SSRP QUIZ

My name is: Marie Limanni

My position within the Program Executive Director

I've been part of the SSRP team for: Just about four years

What excites me the most about

There are endless possibilities to enhance the student, staff and faculty experience. The SSRP is a catalyst for so many new ideas and transformations!

People would be interested to know that: I've never been bungee jumping or gone sky diving

A fun fact about me is:

I play tenor saxophone in two concert bands and a sax quartet

I am highly motivated by:

Bringing value to the communities I serve and helping people grow and reach their career aspirations along the way.

My hope for the future of the SSRP is:

That we deliver value to the York community and leave a long-lasting impression on current and future staff, faculty and students

The impact I hope to have on the SSRP

Instilling a culture of teamwork, collaboration and encouragement.

Being an inspiration for the team to learn and grow - and to have fun!

The impact I hope the SSRP team has on

Helping with the ability to do things more efficiently and effectively, enhancing York's reputation as an institution of choice.

The most challenging part of my job is:

There aren't enough hours in the day!

The most rewarding part of my job is:

Hearing from colleagues that they have grown so much since they joined the SSRP and are enjoying the journey - and seeing ideas come to fruition.

10 years from now, when students, staff and faculty are using the systems and processes the SSRP has developed, I hope they: Find them intuitive and easy to use

I'm known for having a unique gif or image to share every day, whether its in an email, my Zoom background or in a Teams message. My secret source for the best images is:
