

1

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2

---

---

---

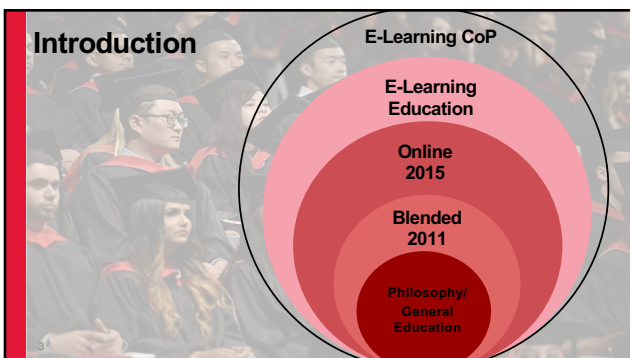

---

---

---

---

---

3

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

MODR 1770

- First iteration: SU 2015 (50 students)
- Fifth iteration: SU 2020 (150 students)
- Accelerated format (6 credits in SU term)
- Diverse student population
- The 5th iteration of this course was the the most successful

4

4

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Success defined:

- Objective:
  - Class GPA is highest in 2020
  - Drop out rate is lowest in 2020
  - Lowest percentage of E and F grades in 2020
  - More synchronous attendance to optional meetings (webinars and virtual office hours)
- Subjective:
  - Synchronous presence and engagement
  - Gratitude emails
  - TA feedback

5

5

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Communication is KEY

- Instructor video intro
- Virtual boards for student input
- Regular course announcements
- Optional synchronous sessions
- Answers to Q & A forum within 24 hours or less
- Responding to participation forum posts that students make
= INSTRUCTOR PRESENCE

6

6

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Embedding Compassion

- Deadline related
- Several deadlines per major assignment
- No notes/proof
- Different Turnitin links
- Class-size dependent

7

7

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

COMMUNITY

- A combination of embedded practices that spark a community dynamic
- Engagement, instructor presence, student presence

8

8

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Sources to exploring digital pedagogy

- Orcutt, J.M. & Dringus, L.P. (2017). Beyond being there: Practices that establish presence, engage students and influence intellectual curiosity in a structured online learning environment. Online Learning 21(3), 15-35. doi: 10.24059/olj.v%vi%i.1231
- Singleton, K., Eymenova, A., Kinas Jerome, M., & Clark, K. (2019). Integrating UDL strategies into the online course development process: Instructional designers' perspectives. Online Learning, 23(1), 206-235. doi:10.24059/olj.v23i1.1407

9

9

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---