

York University Temporary Agency (YUTA)

The York University Temporary Agency (YUTA) specializes in sourcing and placing temporary employees for short-term assignments throughout the University. Our focus on pre-qualification and seamless placement ensures that candidates perfectly match the diverse needs of the University.

As a YUTA candidate, you'll receive notifications for varied work assignments tailored to the unique demands of the University community. Whether it's assisting in administrative tasks or supporting special projects, each assignment presents a new challenge and opportunity for growth.

With durations typically spanning from a few weeks to a few months and flexible hours based on assignment type, YUTA offers the ideal platform for individuals seeking diverse and engaging work experiences.

Join YUTA today and become part of our mission to connect talent with opportunity, driving success and innovation across the University!

To view and apply for YUTA opportunities, visit the External Career Portal www.yorku.ca/jobs

University
Services
Centre

YORK 