

Affirmative Action Program

York University values diversity as vital to a thriving intellectual community. We take affirmative action to ensure that women, members of racialized groups, persons with disabilities, Indigenous peoples, and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+ receive fair treatment during the application and hiring processes. We invite you to self-identify as a member of one or more of these groups. Self-identification is optional but is required to be considered in the Affirmative Action Program. You can check “I do not wish to answer” if you do not wish to self-identify at this time. All responses will be kept confidential and used only to reduce the influence of implicit biases in our hiring. To learn more, see Affirmative Action at York or contact the EDI Program Manager, Christal Chapman: chapman7@yorku.ca; 416-736-5713.
