The School of Social Work in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies at York University invites highly qualified applicants for an Assistant or Associate Professor position in Direct Practice. The successful candidate will have demonstrated experience practicing and/or teaching direct practice with individuals, families, and/or groups. This is a tenure-track appointment to the Professorial Stream to commence July 1, 2024.

The School of Social Work is committed to educating social workers in practices that further the goal of social justice. The successful candidate will demonstrate a substantive analysis of systemic oppression, and engagement with the mission statement of the School in their teaching and scholarship. The successful applicant must demonstrate excellence in scholarly research, teaching, and service and must be suitable for prompt appointment to the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

Candidate Qualifications:

- Degree: BSW and/or MSW and a PhD in Social Work or a related discipline are required.

- Scholarship:
  - A coherent and well-articulated program of research and specialization in critical social work.
  - A record or evident promise of generating innovative, substantive, rigorous, and as appropriate, externally funded research.
  - A record or evident promise of making influential contributions and demonstrating excellence in the field (e.g., journal articles, books, book chapters, presentations, innovative knowledge mobilization).

- Teaching:
  - The School is seeking candidates to teach BSW- and MSW-level core courses from a critical perspective.
  - A record or evident promise of excellence in teaching and dedication to students (e.g., teaching accomplishments, pedagogical innovations, experiential education, course development).
  - Suitability for prompt appointment to the Faculty of Graduate Studies, given that the position will involve graduate teaching and supervision.

- Practice:
  - The successful candidate will have demonstrated experience working with diverse and marginalized populations.
  - The successful candidate will have demonstrated experience practicing and/or teaching direct practice with individuals, families, and/or groups.

- Service: The successful candidate will also have a demonstrated strong record of service.
