2 Positions: One Assistant/One Associate Professor in Sport Management
Sport Management Program, Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies

The Sport Management program in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies at York University, invites highly qualified applicants for two (2) positions, one for an Assistant Professor and one for an Associate Professor position in Sport Management. These are tenure-track appointments to the Professorial Stream to commence 1 July 2024.

The Sport Management Program seeks candidates who hold expertise in and can teach the foundational and core courses in in the Bachelor of Sport Management program, which will accept its first cohort of students in Fall 2024. Applicants should have the breadth and versatility to teach a variety of undergraduate courses in the program. The successful candidates will be expected to engage in externally funded research at the highest level. The successful candidates will join the first cohort of faculty members based at York’s new Markham Campus. Until the opening of the Markham campus, the appointees will carry some teaching responsibilities at York’s Keele campus while contributing to the development of academic and research programming planned Markham.

York University’s Markham Campus offers state-of-the-art facilities to provide job-ready academic programming and research focusing on core themes of technology and entrepreneurship as applied in different contexts, disciplines and professional fields. Building on York University’s academic presence in the City of Markham, the new campus will help fulfil future labour market and civic leadership needs by providing transferable 21st century skills that are at the core of future economic competitiveness and community development in Markham, York Region and across Ontario. Collaboration with York University’s existing research strengths in the core areas of the new campus and dynamic engagement with the area’s businesses, industries, and communities will create an innovative, cross-disciplinary, and social justice-oriented research culture for solving complex problems that transcend traditional disciplines.

Candidate Qualifications:

- Degree: PhD in Sport Management or related field no later than 1 July 2024 is required.
- Scholarship:
  - A coherent and well-articulated program of research and specialization in Sport Management and/or related areas.
  - A record – or in the case of Assistant Professor applicants, evident promise – of generating innovative, substantive, rigorous, and as appropriate, externally funded research and/or research creation.
  - A record – or in the case of Assistant Professor applicants, evident promise – of making influential contributions and demonstrating excellence in the field (e.g., the research statement, a record of publications or forthcoming publications in significant journals in the field, presentations at major conferences; awards and accolades, strong recommendations from referees of high standing).
- Teaching:
  - A record – or in the case of Assistant Professor applicants, evident promise – of excellence in teaching and dedication to students (e.g., the teaching statement, teaching accomplishments, teaching evaluations, strong letters of reference).
  - Suitability for prompt appointment to the Faculty of Graduate Studies, given that the position may/ involve graduate teaching and supervision.
• Additional:
  o Pedagogical innovations in priority areas such as experiential education and technology enhanced learning are an asset.
  o As initial appointments to a newly established program, demonstrated interest and experience in program development and leadership will be an asset.

Hiring Policies:
• Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.
• All York University positions are subject to budgetary approval.
• York is an Affirmative Action (AA) employer and strongly values diversity, including gender and sexual diversity, in its community. Details of the AA Program, which applies to women, members of racialized groups, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+, can be found here or by contacting Christal Chapman, EDI Program Manager (chapman7@yorku.ca; 416-736-5713).
• York welcomes and employs scholars from all over the world. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens, permanent residents and Indigenous peoples of Canada will be given priority.
• York has a policy on Accommodation in Employment for Persons with Disabilities and is committed to working towards a barrier-free workplace and expanding the accessibility of the workplace to persons with disabilities. Applicants who require accommodation are invited to contact Associate Professor David J. Doorey at ddoorey@yorku.ca.

Application Process:
• Due date for completed applications: has been extended to 15 February 2024
• Required materials: 1) current CV; 2) cover letter; 3) a statement of research and teaching interests; 4) teaching evaluations; and 5) contact information of three referees.
• Provide required information regarding your Canadian work status and optional self-identification for Affirmative Action purposes as part of the online application.
• Direct questions about the position to Associate Professor David J. Doorey at ddoorey@yorku.ca.
• Submit materials at https://apply.laps.yorku.ca

Learn More About York:
• York University generates and shares knowledge through our research, teaching and engagement with communities around the world. The 2023-2028 Strategic Research Plan showcases the depth, breadth and ambition of research at York.
• York’s commitments to social justice are laid out in our [Decolonizing, Equity, Diversity and
• Follow the activities and accomplishments of York’s faculty, students and staff on YFile.

---

York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.