

Faculty Affairs Events

Women in STEM Meet-Up

Nov 4 | 1.00-3.00pm | 519 Kaneff | RSVP

Last Call – Still time to RSVP today!

All women faculty in STEM fields are invited to a meet-up on Women in STEM: Teaching, Mentorship and Community, co-hosted by Faculty of Health and Faculty Affairs. Join us for an interactive afternoon to celebrate and support women faculty in STEM – share stories, explore challenges, and build connections around teaching excellence and peer support. Light lunch served.

Listen In, Reach Out: Building Relationships for Collaborative Leadership

Nov 19 | 12.00-3.00pm | 519 Kaneff | RSVP

Leading an academic unit as a Chair / Director requires building strong relationships that foster trust, mutual respect, and shared purpose among faculty, staff, students and partners. Faculty Affairs in collaboration with CHREI is excited to host a session for Chairs and Directors on Building Relationships for Collaborative Leadership. Join us to connect with other Chairs / Directors across York to share strategies and tips for leading collaboratively in a collegial environment; navigating and resolving conflicts; and fostering a collegial culture.

Tenure and Promotion Series: Promotion to Associate Professor

Nov 13 | 12.00pm-1.00pm | Online | RSVP

All Assistant Professors are invited to learn about York’s tenure and promotion process. This session is for all Assistant Professors at York who are currently in the candidacy stage. This session will provide guidance on York's Tenure and Promotion process, related with moving from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor.

Data-Informed Leadership: Using Evidence for Strategic Decision Making

Dec 3 | 10.00am-12.00pm | Online | RSVP

This interactive 2-hour virtual session, led by the Office of Institutional Planning and Analysis (OIPA), will help academic leaders access and navigate relevant data sources and systems, and choose effective tools and methods to visualize and share insights. Discussion will include how leaders can navigate questions of governance, privacy, and trust to ensure the responsible and impactful use of data. The session will also highlight how OIPA supports Strategic Enrolment Management (SEM), foresight analysis, market research, predictive analytics, and impact evaluation.

Research

NSERC Alliance Advantage: A Deep Dive into the Application

Nov 27 | 10.30am | Online | RSVP

Join Research Commons for an in-depth walkthrough of the NSERC Alliance Advantage Grant application process, led by experienced Research Officers from the Lassonde School of Engineering and the Faculty of Science. The NSERC Alliance Advantage Grant offers funding for collaborative research projects between academic researchers and partner organizations, providing an edge in advancing innovations through partnerships. This grant is ideal for researchers looking to work closely with industry, non-profits, or government sectors to apply scientific discoveries and engineering solutions to real-world challenges.

Community Engaged Research Part 1: Laying the Groundwork for Community Impact

Nov 26 | 1.00pm | Online | RSVP

This two-part workshop series on Community-Engaged Research, hosted by Research Commons in collaboration with the York University-TD Community Engagement Centre, is designed for researchers committed to creating impactful, community-centered partnerships. Learn best practices for planning, conducting, and sustaining meaningful community-engaged research that reflects the needs and voices of community members at every stage, from proposal development to long-term relationship building.

Discover York Academics: Drop-in Sessions

Fridays | 12.00pm | Online | RSVP

Research Commons and the Discover York Academics (DYA) team are excited to offer weekly drop-in sessions - every Friday at Noon until December 19th to assist faculty members in creating their DYA profiles. These sessions will be available online.

Discover York Academics is a dynamic eCV platform that enables faculty to showcase their work, connect with peers, indicate availability for graduate supervision, and enhance visibility to industry and community partners.

Teaching Commons

Generative AI Pedagogies Community of Practice Meeting

Nov 4 | 2.00-3.00pm | Zoom | RSVP

Join our community of practice to connect with colleagues from across the university to discuss how the AI landscape continues to evolve. Of particular interest at our next meeting are agentic browsers, which have exploded onto the scene this semester.

Community Conversation: Designing Courses for Integrity

Nov 6 | 1.00-2.00pm | Zoom | RSVP

Join a conversation about elements of course design that can mitigate academic dishonesty. We will discuss how GenAI might be helpful (or not!) in designing courses with integrity, and share strategies that can be adapted across disciplinary contexts.

» Updated Resources on the Teaching Commons Website

The Teaching Commons site has updated its resource page for AI-related teaching. Visit AI Pedagogies Resources and scroll down to explore what is on offer. You may be interested in the Getting Started With AI video series, the editable slide deck for classroom use, or HEART, a student-created toolkit.

Libraries

Let’s Talk About It: A Conversation with Author Suzette Mayr

Nov 13 | 11.30 - 1.30pm | Scott Library, 2nd Floor | RSVP

Nov 13 | 5.30 - 6.30pm | Heliconian Club - 35 Hazelton Avenue, Yorkville | RSVP

York University Libraries is thrilled to host Let’s Talk About It: A Conversation with Author Suzette Mayr, an exciting opportunity for students, faculty, and library patrons to engage with one of Canada’s most celebrated contemporary writers.

Faculty of Education

» Roundtable Conversations

In alignment with York University’s transformative Faculties of the Future initiative, the Faculty of Education is hosting a series of roundtable conversations designed to explore shared interests, research collaborations, and forge new partnerships in the cross-disciplinary field of Education.

- Conversation 3: Nov 4 | 1:00–2:00 p.m.
- Conversation 4: Nov 6 | 10:00–11:00 a.m.

For more information and to register Click Here.

Scholar’s Hub

The Quest for a Great Place to Work

Nov 26 | 12.00 pm | Online | RSVP

When do employees perceive an organization to be a great place to work? Understanding this is critical given how popular yet largely unresearched the notion of a great place to work is. In this session, Dr. Anirban will speak about reconceptualization of a great place to work based on affect and preference and share a model of a great place to work, strongly supported by data gathered in three studies.

Faculty of Graduate Studies

Supervision 101 at York U

Nov 12 | 1.00-2.30pm | Online | RSVP

Whether you are new to York University, new to grad studies or a seasoned graduate faculty member, you are warmly invited to join the Faculty of Graduate Studies’ Graduate Supervision Support Hub for an online workshop and facilitated discussion regarding graduate supervision. Featuring supervisory best practices, guidelines and policies, reflections from graduate students and reflection. Contact Tracy Bhoola for more information at tbhoola@yorku.ca.