HIST4840: Public History

- 4th year honours course, 6.0 credits
- Fall term classroom: theory, skills development; Winter term: 12 week placement, 120 hours
NEW! UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC HISTORY

STUDENTS GAIN KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS IN PRODUCING HISTORICAL CONTENT FOR PUBLIC AUDIENCES IN THE CLASSROOM & THROUGH A 12 WEEK PART-TIME PLACEMENT.

Public history describes the ways history is created for and understood by public audiences in museums and heritage institutions, documentary film, school classrooms and popular history books.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO APPLY SEE THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY WEBSITE HTTP://HISTORY.LAPS.YORKU.CA/PUBLIC-HISTORY-CERTIFICATE/
Certificate in Public History

* Learn about work in historical, heritage and cultural institutions
* Gain skills in the production and presentation of historical knowledge for public audiences

How to apply
* You need 54 credits completed
* Apply at the end of your 2nd year
* Fill out application form on the history dept. website

Requirements
* 2 mandatory courses
* 24 credits total required
* 1 twelve week part-time placement in a historical, cultural or heritage institutions

Courses
* In 3 faculties: LAPS, AMPD & Giendon
* On a range of topics: from museum exhibits to digital history

Note: the 24 credits required may overlap with other degree requirements

For more information: history.laps.yorku.ca/public-history-certificate/
SEVENTH ANNUAL
STUDENT PUBLIC HISTORY CONFERENCE

York University / Glendon College

APRIL 6, 2022 | 9AM - 4:30PM | VIRTUAL & IN-PERSON
ACCESS AND INCLUSION IN HISTORIC HOUSE MUSEUMS

York University’s 7th Annual Public History Symposium in collaboration with the City of Toronto Museums and Heritage Services
Todmorden Mills Heritage Site, 67 Pottery Rd., Toronto
8 November 2019

Contact bonnellj@yorku.ca for more info
Questions?

Contact: Prof. Jennifer Bonnell
bonnellj@yorku.ca