The Power of Women Working Together

University Women's Club of North York

The University Women's Club of North York was founded in 1951.

With 150 members, we are a member club in the Canadian Federation of University Women.

UWCNY is engaged in empowering women's lives through friendship, education, outreach, advocacy, and action. It is a place to make lasting friendships, engage in social activities, and participate in the community.

Join us!

Membership is open to any woman who supports CFUW's goals. A university degree is not required.
